

TO COUNTY OFFICERS.

Be in mind that we make all kinds of Blank Books, Court Records, Tax Books, Assessor's Books, and everything needed in the offices of the different Clerks; also, that we make them as good as they can be made anywhere East or West, and at prices as low as anybody will make them and furnish good material. Send us your orders, and we guarantee satisfaction in every respect.

THE CHRONICLE COMPANY.

By reference to Congressional proceedings it will be seen that there is prospect of another Bankrupt Law.

"The Democrats in Congress are in a quandary," so the Tribune's head lines say.

Just as we expected. They are always breaking into somebody's dairy.

The Marriage and Birthday Associations are all coming to grief.

Our dispatches show that Person Jones, Secretary and Treasurer of the Royal Benefit Association, has been jailed for frauds in the business.

SUNBEAMS can race with the morning star, and it sounds well in poetry.

But the racing of the steamboat "Sunbeam" with the "Morning Star," at New Orleans, cost the lives of 16 people out of the 21 on board.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR's message may do very well for a president, but just wait until you hear Governor Bate's Message!

Arthur's message is only the soup that precedes the grand banquet of substantial and luxuries that Bate will serve up for us.

While Bate may be for 50 & 3 in paying his debts, he is a 100 & 6 man in eloquence.

"It is said that the Knoxville Chronicle lost many subscribers by the change of management."—Maryville Watchman.

Oh, no, Mr. Watchman, Capt. Rule's friends are not as narrow-minded as your informant. We can count on our fingers all who discontinued.

Capt. Rule's friends will have no reason to stop the Chronicle; and scores of them have assured us of their good will.

Congress, for a few days, will be like a lot of ants mixed up in crossing a road.

But it will not be long before the Democrats will all be seen going one way and the Republicans the other way.

Each party will be thinking too much of their party, and too little of their country.

"He serves his party best who serves his country best."

The Tribune seems to be of opinion that newspapers are run by legs. However, judging from yesterday's edition, it is not so strong in that opinion as it was.

Its legs are evidently weakening. Old Granddaddy Long-legs of the Tribune will soon find out that heads are not out of place in a newspaper office.

The giraffe, the ostrich, the crane and the shanghai have never acquired any great reputation for wisdom or bravery.

Knox County wants a new Court House. The present Court House is a disgrace to the County, and a nuisance to the City and an eye-sore to every friend of progress who looks upon it.

As long as the present Court House remains, Knox County will be deemed less enterprising or less wealthy than her neighbors; and Knoxville will be deemed devoid of public spirit.

A handsome Court House would greatly advertise our County and City. The present Court House is like ragged garments on a man of wealth and intelligence.

All through East Tennessee handsome Court Houses have been built since the war; but Knox County, where everybody expects to see an example, has nothing but a dilapidated antiquity for the abode of her majesty.

When a man goes into it, instead of feeling awed by the thought that he is in the Temple of Justice, and at the Altar of the Law, he feels like picking somebody's pocket, or swearing a lie.

People of Knox! let us have a Court House worthy of our reputation, worthy of our wealth, and worthy of the grand age in which we live!

Pennsylvania Politics.

Senator Mitchell spoke freely of political matters to the Herald correspondent.

"I am very much pleased," he said, "with the result in our State. I am a Republican, but under the circumstances, I am glad that a Democratic Governor was elected. It was necessary to rebuke certain leaders in our party, and I think that has been very effectively done. There will be no revival of the boss system in Pennsylvania. Don Cameron and his followers are laid out for good. The feeling that existed before the election has practically disappeared. The Republicans have seen the folly of fighting among themselves, and I think with proper management we can easily regain the State."

With Diamond Dyes any lady can get as good results as the best practical dyer. Every dye warranted true to name and sample.

THE SONG OF THE WIRES.

News from All Parts of the World.

Interesting Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—In the Supreme Court of the District today, District Attorney Cokhill announced that the government was ready to proceed in the Star Route cases.

Mr. Ingersoll submitted a motion for the continuance of the cases and read an affidavit of Stephen W. Dorsey, stating that he could not safely proceed to trial on account of the state of his health, as he is compelled to remain in a dark room on account of his eyes, and cannot be present in court. The motion was overruled.

The ways and means committee, at its meeting this morning, unanimously adopted a resolution to proceed at once to the consideration of the tariff commission, and to frame a tariff bill. The clerk of the committee was directed to prepare schedules of the rates now existing, and of those proposed by the commission.

The President to-day nominated the following to be postmasters: Geo. S. Krouse, at Culpeper, Va.; Robert W. P. Morris, at Lynchburg, Va.; Mona T. Sullivan, at Starkville, Miss.; John A. Mahone, at Holly Springs, Miss.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—Senators Voorhees, Sherman, McDill, Vest, Ingalls, Chittenden and Miller, of New York, presented petitions for the passage of the bill to increase the pensions of one armed and one legged soldiers. Referred to the committee on pensions.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows:

By Senator Johnston: To authorize the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company to extend its road to a point on the United States lands at Fort Monroe. Referred to the committee on military affairs, giving the approval of Congress to the agreements made in 1871 and 1872 between the Secretary of War and Joseph Egar and C. C. Willard.

By Senator Brown: To repeal the internal revenue act of 1864, and all laws and parts of laws enlarging, extending or amending the same. Referred to the finance committee.

At the close of the morning hour Senator Beck called up his political assessment investigation resolution, and asked that a vote be taken.

Senator Hale offered a substitute setting forth the names of the members of the Congressional executive committees of both parties, reciting the allegations that the Democratic committee had levied contributions on liquor dealers, brewers and other associations, and directing the committee on judiciary to investigate these charges, as well as those made against the Republican committees.

Senator Beck said the substitute proposed to investigate matters over which Congress had no control, was evidently intended to embarrass the legitimate investigation proposed in the original resolution. After a brief discussion the substitute was ordered printed and the matter went over until to-morrow.

Senator Jones offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Secretary of War to furnish to the Senate an estimate of the Mississippi River Commission, for the work of improving the Mississippi River the next fiscal year.

At two o'clock the Senate resumed the consideration of the bankruptcy bill. Senators Garland, Jones and Vest were the principal participants in the debate. Senator Vest moved to strike out the provision that the man who fails for twenty days to discharge an attachment against his property, in a civil suit, shall be deemed a bankrupt. Agreed to.

The bill being still pending, the Senate, at 4:50 p. m., adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on ways and means, reported a concurrent resolution for printing 20,000 copies of the report of the tariff committee. Passed.

Mr. Kelley also reported a resolution for the printing of the report of the committee on the distribution of certain bills on the calendar, previously reported from the committee on ways and means. He stated that the bills referred to, related exclusively to the administration of the law adopted.

The House went into committee of the whole on the Indian appropriation bill. The total amount of the appropriation provided for in the bill is $5,208,955, being $274,200 less than the appropriations of the current year, and $1,516,776 less than the estimates.

Mr. Ryan, of Kansas, who has charge of the bill, explained that the reductions were principally on the appropriations for subsistence.

An amendment was adopted for insertion in the patent authority to be issued to certain individual Indians by the treaty of 1869 with the Sioux Indians, a provision that the lands obtained under that treaty shall remain forever inalienable, and not subject to taxation.

The committee rose and reported the bill to the House, and it was passed.

Mr. Ellis, of Louisiana, offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for information as to the distribution of "Virginia's" indemnity fund, the balance of which remains undistributed, and whether further legislation is necessary to authorize a final distribution of that balance. Referred.

The House again went into committee of the whole.

The first bill on the calendar was one looking to the establishment of a soldier's home at Erie, Pa. The discussion of this bill occupied the remainder of the day. The enacting clause was finally stricken out and the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Kellogg Gets His Certificate.

NEW ORLEANS, La., December 6.—A special to the Times-Democrat, from Baton Rouge, says: The Governor, after a patient and exhaustive examination of the law and the facts in the Kellogg case, has given the certificate to Kellogg, in accordance with the returns from the Third district.

NEW ORLEANS, December 6.—The Times-Democrat this morning publishes the following: "Governor McEnery's action in relation to the third district, have been grossly misrepresented. He has been charged with refusing a certificate to Kellogg; when, in fact the Governor, upon receipt of Acklen's protest raising the question of Kellogg's eligibility, merely suspended action to allow Kellogg to present his statement of the law and facts, which was done on Monday, and on Tuesday a certificate was issued to Kellogg. The question was raised one week ago, and was decided on the day following the filing of Kellogg's brief."

Terrible Steamboat Explosion—Many Killed, Drowned and Wounded.

NEW ORLEANS, December 6.—The boiler of the propeller, Morning Star, plying between this city and Magnolia plantation, exploded at six o'clock this morning at Bellair plantation. Of twenty-one on board three were killed, eight drowned and six badly, if not fatally, wounded. The steamer Sunflower was near by and at once returned to the rescue and brought the wounded to this city. They were sent to the hospital. Jack Johnson, white, fireman, and seven colored rouabouts were drowned. The killed are Henry Kaiser, Nancy Gardner, colored, and the child named Joseph Sumner, and the badly scalded Eugene Penny, colored; engineer, James Ryan, boiler maker; Mary Miller, colored, passenger; Frank Holt and Wm. Franz, employees of the boat, and Sarah Young.

Electors by Eight Majority.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, December 6.—The State canvassing board in the Wallace-McKinley contest, in the eighteenth Congressional district, decided this morning that McKinley, Republican, was elected by eight majority, and issued a certificate of election accordingly. In the seventh district Morey, Republican, was declared elected, and in the twelfth district Hart, Republican. There were no other contests.

Machinery for a Cotton Factory Successfully Tested.

CHARLESTON, S. C., December 6.—The engines and machinery of the Charleston Cotton Factory, which was begun in August, 1881, were successfully tested to-day, and next week will begin spinning. The mill has 15,000 spindles, with a capacity for 15,000 more. It is the first cotton mill erected in Charleston since the war, and will be run by steam entirely.

Shawnee College Burned.

BEDFORD, Ind., December 6.—Shawnee College, ten miles south of Bedford, was burned Monday night, with its museum of Indian curiosities, valued at $10,000. It is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary. None of the property was insured.

Morgan Said to Have Died Abroad.

BOSTON, December 5.—Major Ben. Perley Poore, the Washington correspondent of the Journal, speaking of Thurlow Weed's alleged exposure of the Morgan mystery, says: "Careful of his reputation, it was strange that Mr. Weed, as the end of his eventful life approached, desired to remove the stigma that he had been prominently concerned in extending a front tooth from the body of a drowned Irishman, and of saying defiantly that 'he'll make a good enough Morgan until after election.' His statements about the taking off of Morgan, which are all hearsay, were doubtless believed by him, but they are not evidence. When in Smyrna some forty years ago I gathered a good deal of information about a mysterious American who had come there soon after the Morgan excitement. He received quarterly remittances and finally died there. Were I disposed to give hearsay statements I think that I could show that the mysterious stranger was Morgan, who was paid liberally by the Anti-Masons to absent himself, but who hoped after some years had elapsed to return to the State of New York. But I cannot prove the state ment, and my own oath would not make my statements of what I saw, heard and did, legal evidence."

Henry Ward Beecher's cow broke into the grounds of a neighbor at Peekskill, and made havoc, which brought the neighbor to Mr. Beecher.

"I wish you would keep your cow out of my shrubbery," exclaimed the irate neighbor, to which Mr. Beecher replied: "And I wish you would keep your shrubbery out of my cow; it spoils the milk." The two aforesaid neighbors are on speaking terms no more.

Striking Weavers Resume Work.

MONTREAL, December 6.—The weavers who lately struck in the St. Henri Cotton Mills have returned, and are now working by the piece and making about 25 per cent. more than by the day work, although they stopped out because the change was made.

I had severe attacks of gravel and kidney trouble; was unable to get any medicine or doctor to cure me until I used Hop Bitters, and they cured me in a short time.—A Distinguished Lawyer of Wayne Co., N. Y.
